Despite this, there was a timely reminder of United's susceptibility to the counter, as the returning Christian Benteke was played through on goal and forced David de Gea into his first save a minute later. The following year he was on the move again, joining ambitious second tier Cadiz, and at the end of his first full season with the Andalusian club he celebrated another promotion. Finally, at the age of 27, he had made it into the top flight. Their deals expire in June 2022, along with the contracts of Cesar Azpilicueta and Thiago Silva. However, the talks around the two more experienced defenders are likely to be easier than with the younger stars who are generating huge interest over a free transfer. He can operate as a 10 and out wide. He's at a level now where I expect to see him crank through those gears in the coming weeks. What the managers said...Dundee United boss Tam Courts: There's nothing to report on that (Tony Watt signing a pre-contract with the club). "Ben is out," the German told reporters. "He has a partial injury of his ACL [anterior cruciate ligament] and the decision is to treat it conservatively. The positive cases, combined with our well documented injury issues, means that we would not have enough recognised first-team players to meet the Premier League requirements for the fixture. In his haste, he took his wife's Lasimac medication by mistake. This tiny action would threaten his career and drag his name through the mud. Now Jurgen Klopp is held up as the template instead. The big thing is what happens next, said Neville. But he is hopeful of resurrecting his career at Barca ahead of a possible debut against Atletico Madrid on Sunday. Everton were dangerous in the opening stages, but happy to give up the ball to Watford, who were on 70 per cent possession inside the first 10 minutes. But you have to take into account the fact that he would be a free agent in the summer, which would give him all the options and the financial implications that would have. We've already seen in a short space of time his qualities with the ball. When I'm not with my family, I'm always with him, says Reguilon. Martin Schoots says the midfielder has been working hard to return to playing after suffering a cardiac arrest playing for Denmark at Euro 2020, and the future is bright. He found himself one-on-one with the goalkeeper after being picked out by Rupp, but his shot was straight at Sa. The lower teams have got a high level of fitness and tactical awareness when they're playing, and the general intensity of the games in England tend to be higher than the French league, maybe because the gap isn't as big between the very top team and the very bottom team. Zaha raced past Ruben Dias and hit a low left-footed shot across Ederson into the far corner - a 50th goal in the Premier League for the homegrown winger. Liverpool is ready for the title, we are not. I don't need to be here saying about the difference of the level. Asked if he was flattered by the links, he added: No, not really. It's just speculation or people want to write something. The striker, who has netted four times in 10 outings for Roma after joining from Chelsea in the summer, marked his first start for the Three Lions in four years with a goal in Andorra. Oxford shrugged off their recent coronavirus issues to beat Fleetwood 3-1 at Kassam Stadium. Burton brought an emphatic end to four straight defeats as they thrashed Accrington 4-0. The host's were awarded a penalty deep into injury-time, which was dispatched by club captain Criscito to complete the comeback and earn a valuable three points for Genoa. The power of a vociferous home crowd was evident in the very first Premier League game played in front of a full house as newly-promoted Brentford stunned Arsenal with a famous 2-0 win in the season curtain-raiser at the Brentford Community Stadium. I'm so grateful to be here and will wear the badge with so much pride. The team are in great form, playing attractive football. Adam Reach was denied by a well-timed challenge from Grant Hall as he broke into the box moments later, but, while Wednesday dominated possession for most of the second half, they fell behind in the 73rd minute. Winning the Golden Boot is not important for me. Scoring goals is really good but you can't score alone. You need the team. Steve Cotterill's Shrews will be awkward opponents for any inexperienced team but the Reds should still have enough quality to win this time too, especially at home. Jacob Ramsey's goal was a very accomplished finish. He runs into the space quickly then calms down in front of goal just steers it into the corner. How old is he again?
