The answer lies with the Saints' defence, who have conceded 75 goals in the Premier League in 2021 - more than any other side - and are in danger of taking Ipswich Town's 27-year old record of 79 in a calendar year. At Ajax, a club that has had its divisions in the past, the atmosphere among the group has rarely been a problem. Of course, you never get to know about our problems, because we never talk, and we never do anything together. It's about keeping focus on the next game, the next challenge - whatever the competition - and see where we are at the end of the season. You have to overturn that. Hopefully this can build confidence and trust and belief that we can win in difficult matches. Crystal Palace are exploring the possibility of bringing Aaron Wan-Bissaka back from Manchester United on loan for the 2022-23 campaign. The 24-year-old moved to Old Trafford for around £50 million back in 2019 but has struggled to find a consistent level of form in Manchester. The Athletic reveal that the Eagles are considering the opportunity to bring Wan-Bissaka back to south London in a bid to upgrade their options at right-back. It is likely that any potential deal would be a loan rather than a permanent transfer. He makes the game look really easy and at 21 years of age, it's been quite remarkable how quickly he's settled into the Premier League, having been a bit-part player for Juventus. Such has been Kulusevski's impact since arriving in January that no player aged 21 or under in the Premier League this season has a better minutes-per-goal ratio than him. I hope I'll never get an incident like this again, but that's part of being in this job. We'd rather we weren't making news. Spurs appeared to be doing their north London rivals a favour when Les Ferdinand gave them an unlikely first-half lead, but goals from David Beckham and Andy Cole either side of half-time rendered the Gunners' 1-0 win over Villa meaningless and kick-started United's march towards an unprecedented Treble of Premier League, FA Cup and Champions League. It will be precisely 19 days since his appointment by the time he takes to the dugout for his first home Premier League game against Leeds United, live on Sky Sports, this Sunday. 14 of those games came in the Bundesliga, where the team has slipped to 11th in the table and 13 points behind leaders Bayern Munich.
