If you win one Premier League title it's great but to win back to back or two defines you as a truly great team. But Grant went on to win it with virtually the last kick of the game to see the Baggies move within five points of the play-offs. Wes (Foderingham) mopped things up that came into the box without us really suffering any shots on target, which is great. Given the often fine margins between survival and relegation from the Premier League, that tally has the potential to prove significant. A steely and resilient defensive display, marshalled by the evergreen Thiago Silva, weathered the constant Manchester City bombardment, but Thomas Tuchel's side were found woefully wanting at the business end of the pitch. But they were fortunate to draw with Southampton with some of the chances they had, and they'd lost 9-0. 'He's an important boy now, one of the leaders, and once again, it was our phenomenal friend Achraf who's scored a magnificent goal and showed his exceptional talent.' Everton have formally agreed a £17m deal for Ukraine left-back Vitaliy Mykolenko, paving the way for the departure of Lucas Digne who has been targeted by both Leicester and Newcastle in the January transfer window. It was also the club's first-ever home win in the top division after failing to win any of their home games in their only previous Bundesliga season in 2012-13. Huddersfield Town moved third in the Championship as they overcame play-off rivals Luton Town in an edgy game at the John Smith's Stadium. 'It's great. There are so many young guys with so much talent, it's really crazy with our team. We just have to keep pushing on and keep developing.' The match got off to a scrappy opening, with the two teams seemingly playing similar styles and cancelling each other out as a result. Whatever happens, it's likely to go down to the wire once again as these two sides continue to push each other to the limit. If you want more of what you saw today, then worry not. It's Liverpool v City part 3 (if you include the two 2-2 draws in the league) in the FA Cup next weekend – and in that Wembley semi final there will have to be a winner.
