Manchester City are in talks to sign River Plate striker Julian Alvarez. Sources in Buenos Aires have told Sky Sports News he has a release clause somewhere in the region of £15m-£17m. We know how hard they made it at Hampden and we know we're in for a tough night, so we need to be at our best. But we've been good at dealing with the pressure - it's usually brought out the best in us. Idah's goal was his first in 27 Premier League appearances for Norwich. Less than two minutes later, Adam Idah slid home a second to spark delirium around Carrow Road. But the 32-year-old is now set to join Birmingham's rivals Villa, who will become the ninth different club in her 16-year playing career. Kevin De Bruyne has now scored five goals against Chelsea in the Premier League, the most by a former player against the Blues. And after his strong track record at Tottenham, there are grounds to believe he has the quality to challenge Guardiola's City, as well as Thomas Tuchel's Chelsea and Jurgen Klopp's Liverpool. Pochettino has long been tipped for the United job, given his Premier League experience, style of football and ability to develop youth. Diaz, too, looks made to measure for this Liverpool side. It may be early days, but Colombian already looks like he will be a huge hit on Merseyside. Torres, 21, has played only four times in the Premier League this season, scoring twice, and once more in the Champions League. There was the enthralling 3-3 draw with Uruguay, and the Salif Diao wondergoal against Denmark, while Henri Camara's golden-goal winner against Sweden in the Last 16 finally ended Africa's wait for another World Cup quarter-final appearance. But second time around it was about coming back stronger and better and I won't - and we won't - accept that. Meanwhile, West Ham are currently supporting an RSPCA investigation. Our priority is and has always been the wellbeing of these cats, an RSPCA spokesperson said. However, Clarke acknowledges the break in action over recent months may have interrupted his team's flow but is hopeful they can start rebuilding momentum with another victory at Hampden against a Polish side preparing for their World Cup play-off final against Sweden or Czech Republic next week. I think that's very dangerous because the people we're putting in charge to teach our kids don't feel confident enough within their role to talk about subjects that are happening in the world.

The Al-Nassr striker did brilliantly to send the 'keeper the wrong way twice and it suggests that on another day he might have added more. However, no announcement on who will take over is expected until late in the weekend or early next week.

DERMOT SAYS: I thought it was a good shout when you see it first viewing, but a lot of times you see things on first viewing and think it's a good tackle. Small number' of Man Utd Covid-19 cases | Positive test at Villa Tottenham transfer rumours: Conte eyes first signings Covid-stricken Spurs saw their last two fixtures, Thursday's Europa Conference League match against Rennes and Sunday's trip to Brighton, postponed because of a coronavirus outbreak among players and staff. Brighton have given plenty of sides a tough test in the Premier League this season, often failing to get the reward their dominant play warranted, and once again they gave Tottenham a test in this game, particularly in the second half following a tweak to their system. If you have that many players and only 10 [outfield] players can play and three [are] being substituted, then of course you have quite a number of players, in our case 12, 13, 14 players who don't play or are not even being in the squad. Anthony Martial has revealed that he turned down a January move to both Juventus and Barcelona. The 26-year-old also confirmed that he took a paycut on his £240,000-a-week wages at Manchester United to go on loan to Seville, where he will play on loan until the end of the season. The Daily Mail reports that he left to get more game time ahead of the Qatar World Cup. Russia did not play their two matches scheduled in April in Group E (comprising Denmark, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, Malta and Azerbaijan) due to their suspension. Russia will not participate in any of the subsequent matches in this competition and all their results until now are considered as null and void. Consequently, Group E will continue as a group of five teams. Rob Holding (knee) is sidelined as the Gunners aim to build on their narrow win over Norwich last weekend. Asked if the changes were because of rotation following the 4-0 victory over Newcastle, Guardiola told BBC 5Live: "Not rotation, no. I decided for this team because they deserved to play today, these guys and not the other ones. In the civil case, however, a judge upheld Clair's claim, ruling that she had been raped in 2011 and ordering Goodwillie and Robertson to pay damages. While Merseyside Police have satisfied themselves in their actions, Whites supporters have proven less than impressed, with Leeds United Supporters Trust vice-chair Graham Hyde countering that the use of pepper spray was excessive. Everton came out with more intent in the second half - they had to - and looked more threatening as they committed bodies forward but their first chance came from an error. Jill will bring so much to this group, not only on the pitch but I see her having a huge impact off it too. This was the 14th dismissal under Arteta and it is up to the manager to arrest that problem. It is simply not good enough and, obviously, hinders not just games but continuity when players are serving unnecessary suspensions.
