Wenger, 72, guided Arsenal to three Premier League titles and won the FA Cup on seven occasions in his 22 years in charge of the north London side. Unfortunately they scored in that period we made changes. We lost shape in the second half because we weren't good enough when we won the ball back. But with just over a year until the World Cup kicks off, Amnesty has released a 48-page report claiming migrant workers are being exploited as they help to build stadiums and infrastructure for the winter tournament. Leicester were arguably the better side on the night, and on reflection, given their second half dominance, will be slightly disappointed not to be taking a lead into next week's second leg at the Stadio Olimpico. We will make mistakes, we will put our hands up but we will defend our club in a really strong way. And now we postpone the match for all the right reasons, believe me. He set the standard, and Alli has the ideal mentor to rediscover the spark that made him such a hard opponent for defences to pin down. Lyon, as I know, is better for adaptation. I have three and a half months before the end of the season and Lyon is not bad for me. Henderson came through the ranks at United and was sent out on loan several times before finally breaking into the starting XI last season. "What happened is the most important moment of my career, but humility is still so important. I mustn't get downbeat with criticism, nor elated by compliments. Nketiah, who scored a hat-trick in Arsenal's Carabao Cup thrashing of Sunderland last month, turned down the club's most recent contract offer and is now able to negotiate a pre-contract with a foreign club. Milan then ended with 10 men after Theo Hernandez picked up a second yellow card, which will keep him out of next weekend's derby with Inter. I had the players on my side because we had the club on our side., says Denichelis. We had the coach on our side because he believed in our philosophy. At the time, he told the players, 'You don't play football with your foot. You play football with your brain.' It's a big asset for a sport psychologist. His numbers at Manchester City were of course incredible: 260 goals in 390 games. He wasn't quite such a relentless goalscorer in his time at Atletico Madrid, a mere 101 in 234, but as you can see from this, all the pieces were there. Portrait of the assassin as a young man, when the commentators thought he might be the next Maradona. Instead, he turned out to be the next Romario. We showed that we are a better team, that is obvious. It's something we really want for us, for the club and for the fans. What I saw was a team that was focused. We are taking the games game-by-game, whether it's in the league or in the cup. Meanwhile, Newcastle are closing in on a loan deal for Targett. The two clubs are close to an agreement that will see the 26-year-old join until the summer. That has taken Burnley, who have four games remaining, up to 16th in the table, two points clear of Everton, who are third from bottom but have a game in hand. Despite their 21-point deduction for entering administration, there is clearly still plenty of fight in Rooney's improving side. Now it's just about enjoying this next chapter of my career and just how it unfolds. I obviously have my own personal goals which I keep to myself, but I'm looking forward to it. They've also scored in their last 18 home league games, since a 1-0 loss against Everton in May 2021. After a run of three straight defeats in the Premier League, Arsenal have won their last two, 4-2 at Chelsea and 3-1 at home to Manchester United. 2021 will live long in the collective footballing memory. This was the year fans made their voice heard in more than one way. It was the year that saw Euro 2020 played in 2021 and the year that arguably the greatest Champions League upset of all time was witnessed. MotherwellGraham Alexander has a couple of good goalscorers in Kevin van Veen and Tony Watt and they've also been very difficult to play against. Special players will continue to do special things. The chaotic comeback victory over Atalanta at Old Trafford on Wednesday evening proved that. Crystal Palace 2-1 Stoke - Match reportHow the teams lined up | Match statsYes, Vieira made five changes against Stoke - including a first start for 18-year-old left-back Tayo Adaramola - but with the likes of Wilfried Zaha and Michael Olise starting, the Palace fans would have been expecting better, especially against a Championship side that was without a win in four games. His reward for staying true to his players was an unbeaten month and 13 points from five games. Everyone worked really hard to put a great run of form together during November. Arsenal don't have a natural finisher; goals are a problem' As well as Forster played against Arsenal on Saturday, some of the chances were very bad misses from the forwards.
