

Online: Hurricanes - Predators Live Stream 18 December 2025

Some girls will adjust quicker than others. The players will also undergo individual and group psychology sessions. Dyche, who said Burnley were way off in their first-half performance, said in the aftermath that his side must find more big moments in attack. They are better than that. For the third season in four, United are likely to finish more than 25 points behind the champions. In 2019 the club topped one million shirt sales and more than half of their Jordan collection went to customers outside France. They have since opened stores in Los Angeles and Tokyo. It's not a separate world - there are real people behind these words, and that normalises that behaviour. When I came back to Twente, I was not really fit any more because I had some problems with my muscles and Erik was the captain. Mykolenko will require a period of adaptation that the international break will hopefully afford him, but Lampard will call upon the more senior members of his squad to take greater responsibility in addressing a leaky defence. That night always sticks out, the 31-year-old said. But the gaffer was a bit different to what you expect. County manager Malky Mackay brought on Jack Burroughs for David Cancela at the break before Hearts were forced into a change when Craig Halkett hobbled off, with Stephen Kingsley coming on. Along with home advantage, the Indomitable Lions have the most potent strikeforce in the tournament in Aboubakar and Ekambi, who are battling to be the Afcon top-scorer. James faced plenty of tricky left-sided players in the Championship, including Ollie Watkins, Yannick Bolasie and Todd Cantwell, but Jacobs remembers barely any of them getting the better of him. When he did struggle, he made sure to come back stronger. Ziyech nearly scored another late on, seeing his fierce header from Havertz's cross stopped by Bachmann, and Chelsea finally found some form of solidity at the back to keep Watford at bay for the remaining minutes. Although I will be wearing the armband, I know we have a squad full of leaders who share my pride and passion in playing for our country. Life goes on pretty easily after yesterday. On whether Chelsea's players were surprised about Jorginho missing out, Tuchel added: My players were surprised Lewandowski didn't win last year. No striker? No problem. Of course, the resources and depth of quality Guardiola can call on is substantial. While Atleti started on the front foot, it was Sevilla who opened the scoring after seven minutes when Ivan Rakitic struck a thunderous effort into the top corner of Jan Oblak's net from outside the box. To avoid spoilers, hit play before scrolling down! They have to keep that up if there's any chance of them catching Watford. Grassroots football referees could potentially trial body cameras in a ground-breaking pilot scheme that has been proposed to the game's law-making body in a bid to reduce assaults on officials. Arsenal were furious, with the spot-kick converted by Riyad Mahrez only given by VAR after referee Stuart Attwell had initially ignored the visitors' appeals for a foul on Bernardo Silva. Frankfurt continued to pose a threat on the break and nearly went ahead through Knauff again, only for the Frankfurt wing-back to rush his finish and fire over from inside the area after a half clearance by Aaron Cresswell. Page has criticised the decision to move the match the city, which is more than 700km east of Moscow. It is understood no concrete offer has been made for the Spain international yet. Molineux boss Bruno Lage knows he must sell before he buys new players this month. His £30m move to Arsenal in the summer was met with scepticism following back-to-back relegations at Sheffield United and Bournemouth but Ramsdale is proving his critics wrong. Confidence has certainly become an issue for Rashford. On-pitch decisions previously made without a thought are now not arrived at so smoothly. In a game of fine margins, over-thinking can be costly. There's a little bit of time, but it is pressing, he said when asked about the possibility of strengthening during the transfer window. The race for Europe: Who needs what and the remaining games Premier League table | Premier League top scorers Get Sky Sports | Get a Sky Sports Pass Europa League exit as bad as I've seen' Where do Arsenal go from here? In a coaching career spanning more than 20 years, Pedro has succeeded in Spain, the United States, England and France and joins the Scottish FA with a set of attributes which will allow Scotland to fulfil their enormous potential. Romelu Lukaku says it is up to him to restore trust after making a public apology to Chelsea head coach Thomas Tuchel, his team-mates and the club's supporters over his recent interview. Caretaker manager Page believes his side have what it takes against Belgium to seal second place in the group. The 35-year-old is showing no sign of slowing down halfway through his 11th season with the Foxes, and Haaland still watches him closely to help him advance his own skills. Aberdeen vs Rangers; Old Firm and Hibs vs Hearts live on Sky Sports The next Old Firm clash between Celtic and Rangers and the Edinburgh derby will both be shown live on Sky Sports. To go through against City is incredibly difficult and intense, and in three days we play again against Manchester United. Leeds showed some belated signs of resistance but De Bruyne hammered in a scorching fifth just past the hour to leave the visitors fearing the worst. Their performance levels are as bad as I've seen in my life, and that's from the very start of the season to the end. Watford received a boost on the eve of the encounter after Emmanuel Dennis was omitted from Nigeria's squad for the Africa Cup of Nations, with the country's federation accusing the club of baring fangs. I have probably played 100 games in women's football and I have never once injured another player, never once been sent off. I've had games where I've conceded six, games where I have conceded none. Being assigned male at birth doesn't make a difference. A commendable ball winner, Haidara chips in with an average of 1.3 tackles per 90 for RB Leipzig this season, while a modest dribble success rate of 72.2 per cent, that the ninth best of the 118 players to attempt 15 or more dribbles in the Bundesliga this season, highlights a strength to drive forward in possession to good effect. Let's not forget a number of players were a little short of match fitness so the legs of some are not overloaded, Page also does have the option of five substitutes. Capello feared that Allegri would be a scapegoat for the Old Lady's deep-rooted problems or, as he put it, the umbrella that all of the criticism would rain down upon if things started to go wrong. Whether or not this is a result of Arteta's coaching, Arsenal are rising on the back of the upward trajectory of their most talented youngsters. 17 of Arsenal's 32 Premier League goals this season have been scored by players aged 21 or under. If the North London side finish in the top four, it'll largely be because of the achievements of their young core.