The North Africans deserved their lead through a well-taken goal from Standard Liege midfielder Amallah in a crowded box and should have doubled their advantage before half-time. When two goals down early on against Liverpool at Stamford Bridge, it was easy to imagine the criticism that might have awaited the Chelsea coach. The Gunners have only lost more league games at their new ground against Man City (5) and Chelsea (6). Aston Villa have won their last three Premier League meetings with Arsenal, as many as they had in their previous 36 against them in the competition (W3 D9 L24). Leipzig went close first, with Konrad Laimer almost sneaking the ball in at the near post, but Zack Steffen was there to push it away. He was involved in a Covid-19 breach last October and his last England appearance came the following month, meaning he ended up watching Euro 2020 from afar. To be doing what he's doing at his age is really incredible, so hopefully it continues for another year or two. Paul Pogba: Man Utd midfielder to decide transfer future Schmeichel: Ten Hag represents opportunity for change Former United goalkeeper Peter Schmeichel believes the appointment of Ten Hag is the perfect opportunity for wholesale change at Old Trafford, following a particularly substandard season which has left United languishing in sixth in the Premier League. Ryan Hardie will feel that he's let everybody down today for missing the penalty, but I can honestly say he hasn't, said his manager. Goals from Ibrahima Konate, Sadio Mane and Luis Diaz secured a 3-1 victory for Jurgen Klopp's side in Lisbon ahead of next week's return leg. Romain Poirot was hired from Manchester City – where he held the title of European Football Consultant – as a first team scout to cover the French market, and the esteemed Toni Lima has also arrived to cover Spain. Last week, they were great against Tottenham, they looked really good and looked like a team. Then they go out and put in a 45-minute performance like that and then come back and get a result. In the process of finalising their proposal, it became increasingly clear that certain issues could not be addressed given the unusual dynamics around the sales process. We have great admiration for Chelsea and its fans, and we wish the new owners well. If he waits until the summer, and goes as a free agent, he's going to have a two- or three-month window to impress Gareth Southgate ahead of that World Cup. For all the years obviously Forest have struggled and maybe not got to where the club expected - now is just an absolutely amazing moment for the players and the fans. This year's AFCON takes place in Cameroon and starts on January 9, with the final on February 6. Three Liverpool players will be there - Salah for Egypt, Mane with Senegal, and Guinea's Naby Keita. Bristol City might wish they had a bit of a break as it's not been an easy season for them so far under Nigel Pearson. The only better situation would have been - because in the cup competitions we couldn't be further - if we are 20 points ahead of City, but that's not possible actually. Everton's Ivory Coast midfielder Jean-Philippe Gbamin has joined CSKA Moscow on loan until the end of the season. In January 2019, though, it was Pep Guardiola's side who were the hunters in a role reversal to this season, when City led Liverpool by 14 points in mid-January, albeit having played two games more than their rivals. It's a joke that, honestly, sighed Gary Neville as Fernandes was beaten to a loose ball by Henderson. It's been a crazy turnaround, but I'm enjoying every minute. Every game we play we want to win, and nothing's different against Manchester United. Watch free highlights of this game at FT Arsenal are perhaps a tad short in the market at 6/5 for the away win considering they have failed to beat Everton, Manchester United, Brighton and Brentford on the road this season - but their extra firepower in the final third does give them the advantage in this fixture. To a certain extent, the pressure is off Arsenal heading into Thursday's game, which is live on Sky Sports. The new Everton manager's steely approach and conviction that he could convince dissenters, which he also had when he was greeted with disapproval at Chelsea before going on to win the Europa League in 2013, led him to believe he could cope with any level of disapproval. Italy international Jorginho is playing through the pain barrier just to keep his club afloat, with summer signing Saul Niguez not fully trusted by the Blues coach after a series of weak performances. He did, however, limp off midway through the second half and the Claretts will be hoping it is nothing serious because with his strength and height in attack and Maxwell Cornet's creativity, Burnley have the tools to give themselves a fighting chance of staying up. City continued to dominate despite the setback and regained the lead when Gabriel Jesus made a late run to beat Liverpool's offside trap and nip in ahead of Alisson to net off a left-wing cross. Liverpool will play twice in the last week of the Premier League after the rearranged fixtures were announced.
