

Livestream: Jets v Blues Live TV 18 December 2025

When Chesterfield's team coach rolls through the gates into Stamford Bridge on Saturday afternoon, Saidou Khan will be thinking of his dad who passed away when the midfielder was aged just 12. There was certainly relief at beating Everton last weekend but they were powerless to halt Tottenham on Thursday and arrived at Elland Road only a point above Leeds in the table. Pep Guardiola has urged his players to be careful if socialising over Christmas to prevent a coronavirus outbreak at Manchester City. Conte's Tottenham come to Chelsea on 23 January, three days before the anniversary of Tuchel's appointment. They play a very simple but effective game, we spoke about the first 20 minutes, about how to manage it and then we didn't do that. They were immediately more threatening, with Burrows testing Nicholls and Sammie Szmodics firing wide from the edge of the box, but the opening goal eventually arrived at the other end courtesy of Ward. A Glenn Murray opener set nerves jangling among the away fans at the Amex Stadium and raised hopes at Anfield that Liverpool might yet pip City for a first league crown in 29 years. But with another Rovers goal looking inevitable, Wigan levelled just after the hour mark as Max Power rifled a beauty from distance past Aynsley Pears in the Rovers goal. Liverpool goalkeeper Alisson says the schedule is "crazy" but added: "At this level we need to be prepared for that and we are. In terms of silverware, Woodward's tenure has not been a positive one. United fans can only hope Woodward's successor enjoys significantly better fortune. The Blues Play Here HEAR EVERY ST. LOUIS BLUES GAME ON 101 ESPN Listen to the First Community Credit Union St. Louis Blues Pregame Show presented by Urban Chestnut Brewing Goals from Marco Verratti, Sergio Ramos and Danilo Pereira and a Wout Faes own goal made it plain sailing for Mauricio Pochettino's side. Aston Villa 2-0 Brighton - Match report and highlightsHow the teams lined up | Match statsThese are the buzzes, the highs you miss as a player. Sky Bet odds to get job: 7/4 Zinedine Zidane His current situation: The 49-year-old has been out of work since leaving Real Madrid earlier this year meaning there would be no compensation package required to get him. We're all keeping each other on our toes. It's worse on the bench because you can't really get involved and do anything, just cheering the lads on as best as possible. I do skip a few heartbeats when I'm on the side. The 33-year-old Manchester City defender, who had captained England since 2014 and to three major tournament semi-finals, is recovering after undergoing Achilles surgery in February. That is what we need to do now. Edwards left his role with the England U16 side to join Forest Green, having previously worked with Wolves' U23s. Graeme Jones' assessment that his players had dug deep and pressed high was not just deflection after a draw which condemned Newcastle to their worst-ever Premier League start. I was just trying to take the corner and get out of there as quick as possible. Man of the match - Luis DiazA goal and an assist on his return to an old Portuguese rival - does it get better than that? Consequently, clubs could insert players of a dubious value into swap deals or player-plus-cash transfers in order to help balance the books. We are talking about a really good person, a really good guy. I'm disappointed and frustrated because I thought our performance deserved more, said Smith. Live football on Sky Sports this weekDownload the Sky Sports appGet Sky Sports for your homeConte has not always appeared at ease during his first five months in north London, and qualifying for Europe's top competition appears to be a significant target for keeping him happy. Palace won 2-1 at The Den to reach the fourth round, which began with a number of Millwall fans booing players who took the knee to protest against racism. They lasted only 60 seconds longer against Southampton, who drew level courtesy of a fine finish by Che Adams. It would have been easy to let the fallout from the decision to strip the striker of the captaincy have an impact on the pitch but, if anything, it inspired them to two of their best performances of the season. It's a result that means Manchester City's remarkable run comes to an end, but you have to go back 130 years - to Preston North End in the 1891-92 season - to find the only team to win 12 games in a row and not win the title that same season. The Whites have been forced to close their training ground and may not be able to fulfil their next fixture against Aston Villa. It was tense, but you wouldn't have known from Vieira's benign demeanour, a picture of tranquillity. Real Madrid are already beginning to plan for the summer transfer window and Spanish media outlet AS reveal that Paris Saint-Germain forward Kylian Mbappe is the club's "priority". Los Blancos are also keen on trying to bring Borussia Dortmund striker Erling Haaland to the Bernabeu but would ideally hold off until 2023. It is expected that the 21-year-old will move at the end of the season and Real are planning to position themselves as favourites in that battle. Luka Modric is expected to sign a one-year extension in the Spanish capital, while Marcelo, Isco and Gareth Bale will all depart for free when their contracts expire in the summer. Match stats | How the teams lined upCarabao Cup news | FixturesSpurs started brightly in the second half, with a Lo Celso pass just out of Kane's reach in the box, and Bergwijn having a shot blocked by debutant Connor Roberts, but with the scores still level at the hour mark, Sean Dyche turned to his frontline strikers, sending on Chris Wood and Ashley Barnes. Thomas Tuchel has confirmed that Andreas Christensen will miss Chelsea's game against Manchester City on Saturday following a positive Covid test. Tottenham were in full flow and swaggered into a two-goal lead when Kane turned provider for Moura to calmly slot home following another swift attacking move as Conte expressed his delight with his coaching staff. Lionel Messi's absence from the Argentina squad for the latest World Cup qualifiers owes to his struggles in getting over a bout of Covid-19, coach Lionel Scaloni explained on Wednesday. They were up against the team with the worst home record in the Premier League and fewest points in their history after their opening 10 league home games of a season. And Saliba remains stoic, keeping his head down, and working hard to earn his place wherever he plays. Taking nothing for granted: But what you could see from his very first day in training yesterday is that he's present - he's physically present, he's mentally present.