He made 269 appearances in all competitions for Spurs and scored 67 goals, including 51 in the Premier League. Newcastle have made an approach to Manchester United for Jesse Lingard, who is out of contract in the summer and has no interest in renewing his deal at Old Trafford. There was a feeling of grim inevitability about what would come next. In fact, that feeling never seems to be far away when Xhaka is around. At the end, we asked him to come back for more sessions. He didn't have a big-headed bone in his body. While his form fluctuated, though, what never seemed to waver was Niasse's pride in his work. Or, indeed, his connection with the local community. He's trained fully the last two days, so he's available for the whole game. Clarke: We aim to get points from England and Croatia Monday's defeat to Czech Republic puts the pressure on Scotland to get points from their remaining two Group D games. Then John McDermott, (taught me) more from the mental side. China has issued a crackdown on footballers getting tattoos, instructing players to remove or cover their own as a "good example to society". We've wanted to walk the ball into the net and I've said before, we're creating the highest xG, the most chances across the league but we don't score enough goals for the amount we create. Armstrong was again looking to the heavens when he controlled a bouncing ball expertly from Mohamed Elyounoussi winning an aerial challenge, but he could only guide his finish once more the wrong side of the post. Having signed an 18-month contract at the club with an option to extend, he witnessed an immediate response. And the Rams made sure of a significant victory when Tosin Adarabioyo turned Tom Lawrence's ball across the box into his own net. But it's disappointing and we lose him for three games now although it's a chance for somebody else to come in. It marks the return of the event, following the decision to forgo it last year - one of the very few instances where it has not been held. The 48-year-old, who recently signed a contract extension until 2026, has made the decision to step down from his role following meetings with CEO Edwin van der Sar and the club's supervisory board. We knew already since late December, it was clear that if you want to achieve something, we better win all our games. Anything is worth a try now. At moments like this Solksjaer will need some of his most-trusted players to stand up and deliver. Warrington are keeping the identity of their new social media sensation Whizzie Rascal secret but have promised there are more antics to come. Even the 'easier' games - Crystal Palace and Burnley away, Newcastle at home - do not look especially appealing. "I have had some fantastic conversations with the manager and Ross Wilson, and I'm really looking forward to working with both of them, and to meeting the supporters." The latter was one of the principal reasons why an injury-ravaged Liverpool managed to secure Champions League football by finishing third in last season's Premier League. The games are coming thick and fast and we are looking to get the results we need to get to try to progress into the play-offs. The biggest ambition of my career is to win national and international titles for the clubs I represent and for the national team in my country. Look at where he can go. He will have options anywhere but the lure of Barcelona and Real Madrid is not the same these days, Redknapp said on Sky Sports.
