Cancelo combined with De Bruyne and Mahrez before leaving Joe Willock and Isaac Hayden in his wake and smashing a 27th-minute shot past the helpless Dubravka. Burnley, meanwhile, sit second bottom in the table with just one point. Barnes squandered the first clear-cut chance of the game shortly before the quarter-hour mark. Pep Guardiola's players probably haven't endured a more difficult first half all season. They were outplayed for 45 minutes in north London and deservedly trailed 1-0 at the break, after Bukayo Saka's 31st-minute strike. Against Crystal Palace it was Ronaldo and Marcus Rashford at the top of a 4-2-2-2 formation, while Greenwood was joined by teenager Anthony Elanga in the changed 4-1-3-2 formation against Young Boys. Eidevall said: I think when we look back to where we were at before that game and during that game, I think we have developed drastically and we have much, much more maturity and have lived through a lot of experience and have learned from that. Both delivered crosses which Nisbet could not make the most of from two headers. Boyle and Cadden were involved again as Hibs came closest to breaking the first-half deadlock. "I propose a clearer separation by playing two blocks of qualifiers," the Frenchman added. "Because what people want is quality. Pochettino and his staff also got involved in the wild scenes of celebration, but the Argentine's enjoyment didn't last too long as he suffered an accidental blow to the face. Anybody that's had that success for that one deserves a seat at the table. With 20 minutes to play and the scores still level, Nkunku wasted a huge opportunity to put Leipzig ahead. He picked the ball up inside the box, cleverly took it around Allan McGregor and with the goal gaping, fired his effort high and wide. Newcastle United moved four points clear of the Premier League relegation zone with a third straight win as Kieran Trippier's free-kick sank Aston Villa at St James' Park. "The boys are in a terrible place in their heads now - we have let ourselves down and the fans down. It's hard to stand here and explain that but that's football and we have to take the flack for it. The more emotional part is that they are participating in football, the price policy, the seating. I believe this is a healthy and balanced concept in football.
