

Today: Memphis Grizzlies vs Minnesota Timberwolves live online 18 December 2025

If Watford defend like they did at the King Power Stadium, they could well be on the end of two thrashings. One point sees United drop to fifth, but we really are looking at a north London ding-dong for fourth at this rate, while Wolves will believe they can trouble Arsenal and Tottenham too. Ligue 1: PSG inch closer to another title; Nice stay in European contention; Lyon hit six. In France, PSG moved to the brink of the Ligue 1 title with a 2-1 win over nearest challengers Marseille. We struggle a little bit but we find solutions - that's why we're here. Chelsea are currently set to play Aston Villa away on Sunday and face Brighton three days later. The Dane, 48, was shown a second yellow card for remonstrating with referee Peter Banks after the final whistle of the Premier League game. However, early markers can often mean little when it comes to the crunch - as City found out in Europe last season - and so the possibility of stumbling at a later stage, again, could be all the more seismic given their stroll in the Portuguese capital last night. World Rugby is trialling a new law during the Six Nations to address a scrummaging technique that has left hookers suffering degenerative neck injuries and fearing paralysis. Patrick Bamford was another to suffer an issue during that costly 2-2 draw with Brentford but he is fit again. None of his rivals for the No. 1 jersey have played at the kind of level Okoye has with Sparta Rotterdam in the Eredivisie—they're not in the relegation zone because of their goals conceded, by the way—while his imminent move to Watford offers hope that he could be the Eagles' first Premier League keeper. A Liverpool statement on Wednesday said: Liverpool Football Club can confirm Pepijn Lijnders has returned a suspected positive test for COVID-19, further impacting the club's preparations for Thursday's Carabao Cup tie with Arsenal. Aboubakar should have won it midway through the second half only to blaze over the bar with the goal gaping. Though the final whistle was greeted with a huge cheer, Burnley's gap to safety grew to four points on the night as Newcastle beat Everton. Everton fans ultimately never warmed to Benitez, and he leaves with a record of seven wins, 11 draws and four losses in the Premier League, while also having overseen their surprise Carabao Cup third-round loss to QPR. Manchester City have set a Champions League knockout record for biggest first-half lead in an away match with a four-score outburst against Sporting CP on Tuesday. Salah's first-half penalty was saved by the brilliant Kasper Schmeichel but he did not test the goalkeeper from the rebound and nor did Sadio Mane when through after the break. Ralf Rangnick's revolution at Manchester United is barely a month old yet his fingerprints can already be seen wherever you look at the club. The footballer was initially charged on August 26 with three counts of rape relating to an alleged incident in October 2020, one count of raping a woman in August this year, and the sexual assault of a woman in early January 2021. Thomas Tuchel is harnessing that by allowing him so much licence to join his forward players from his right-wing back position. You have to come out against Watford like a proper hurt animal and get back to what we can be. Three years into the job, working out exactly what that is remains the conundrum. Adam Bate, Bernardo and Cancelo make the difference. When Pep Guardiola picks his team there is always a surprise. Carvalhaes joined São Paulo in 1957, leaving a job training referees for the city's football federation. The club's interest was piqued by the psychology laboratory he had founded, the likes of which would not be seen in Europe until AC Milan's 'Mind Room' of the late 1980s. St Mirren's request for games against Celtic and Rangers to be postponed after a Covid outbreak at the club have been rejected. Now, the veteran centre-back has acknowledged that he has faced a tough beginning with the French heavyweights, but that he is delighted to be with them - and to have his maiden finish in club colours. We continue to be unequivocal in our stance - we have a zero-tolerance approach to any form of discrimination. The unbeaten Ukrainians, who drew six of their eight Group D games, joined Turkey as unseeded teams in the play-off semi-finals, after rising to second place above Finland, who were eliminated by losing 2-0 at home to table-topping France. Memphis Grizzlies vs. Minnesota Timberwolves ( Watch the Memphis Grizzlies vs. Minnesota Timberwolves (Championship) live stream from ESPN2 on Watch ESPN. First streamed on Monday, July 15, 2019. Shelvey stepped up and fired past Meslier, who perhaps should have done better, given the ball went in on his side of the goal. Nigel Pearson's side should have snatched a point in stoppage time, though. We know we can play better, we know we will play better. The same argument will likely be made to Villa supporters if Gerrard is appointed their club's new manager - an announcement is reportedly close. They should be excited about this news, but not because Gerrard was such a good player. The 41-year-old is also one of the best young managers in the country. But it remains unclear what stage negotiations are at with the various groups who are owed money by Derby - the football creditors (who must be paid in full, otherwise the EFL will impose a points penalty for the start of next season), the non-football creditors (who are likely to only get a proportion of what they are owed) and the HMRC (who are unlikely to accept greatly reduced payments on what they are owed). But Albion went close again after the break when Callum Robinson's close-range deflected shot on the turn was shovelled wide by home keeper Brad Collins. Sporting Khalsa, who are celebrating their 30th anniversary season, enjoyed a fine maiden campaign in the Northern Premier League Midlands Division, finishing eighth, with a Walsall Senior Cup final against Rushall Olympic at the Bescot Stadium coming up on May 12. It's not necessary for him to show today the goals he scored and his quality with the ball. The Italian said of Kane after the win at City: We are talking about a world-class striker. More remarkably, this was ninth-placed Brighton's first home win of 2022 after only picking up four points from their previous eight games at the Amex. A Kevin De Bruyne set-piece was drifted towards the back post and three City players were waiting to head home. Bronze is joined on the injury list by Manchester City team-mates Keira Walsh and Ellie Roebuck, who are also unavailable to be selected in the 25-person squad. The only draw of the day came at Arminia Bielefeld as Wolfsburg scored twice in two minutes to come back from 2-0 down. UEFA Europa League and Europa Conference League matches are also scheduled to take place on Thursday. Both Premier League games between the teams this season have ended as draws, the first time they've shared draws in both league meetings in a season since 2012-13. It was a slower start to the second half with Northern Ireland sinking a little deeper to protect their lead. Kyogo raced forward but Calvin Bassey was there to deflect his shot behind for a corner, which Celtic failed to do anything with. He scored on his latest comeback in the club's Spanish Super Cup semi-final defeat by Real Madrid on 12 January, only to re-injure his hamstring against Bilbao eight days later.